We endeavor to provide our services at a reasonable cost.

Finn Dixon & Herling provides a broad range of legal services to clients in the business and financial community throughout the United States and abroad. The firm's clients include publicly traded companies, privately-held companies, substantial private equity and venture capital groups, banks and financial institutions, hedge funds, investment advisers, third party marketers, broker-dealers, entrepreneurs, start-up ventures and governmental entities. For a complete description of our practice areas, see Practice Areas.

We hire only those lawyers who share our commitment to quality, service and value. In addition to their experience and client-service orientation, our attorneys are leaders in national, state and local professional and civic organizations, and frequently speak and write on legal issues that our clients face in the marketplace.
