Harold B. Finn III, a founding partner of the firm, represents trust companies, private companies and individuals in connection with the establishment and operation of registered investment advisers and private investment companies. He also serves as a counselor to private and public companies in connection with various matters, including mergers and acquisitions, corporate finance and corporate governance.

He received his undergraduate degree from Yale University and received his law degree, magna cum laude, from Columbia University, where he was Articles Editor of the Columbia Law Review. Following law school, he served as a law clerk on the United States Supreme Court to the late Chief Justice Earl Warren and the late Associate Justice Stanley F. Reed.

Mr. Finn is a former member of the Council of the Business Law Section of the American Bar Association. He is a current member and past Chairman of the Banking Law Committee of the ABA's Business Law Section, and he is a current member of the Section's Federal Regulation of Securities Committee, its Sub-Committee on Hedge Funds and its Task Force on Section 16. In addition, Mr. Finn is currently the Chairman of the Securities Advisory Committee to the Banking Commissioner of the State of Connecticut and is past Co-Chair of the Task Force on the Connecticut Business Corporation Act of the Business Law Section of the Connecticut Bar Association. Previously, he has served as Chair of the Business Law Section of the Connecticut Bar Association and as a member of the Advisory Committee on the Revision of the Banking Law of Connecticut. He is an elected member of the American Law Institute.

Mr. Finn is the author of the "Annual Survey of Securities Laws Developments Affecting the Banking and Thrift Industries", which was published annually in The Business Lawyer Update from 1986 through 1991, and of "The Impact of the Proposed Federal Securities Code Upon the Banking Industry", 36 Business Lawyer 397 (1982), and has appeared as a lecturer and panelist in numerous national, regional and state continuing legal education programs. His reported litigation cases include Fort Gratiot Sanitary Landfill, Inc. v. Michigan Department of Natural Resources, 504 U.S. 353, 60 U.S.L.W. 4438, (1992), *Holly Hill Holdings v.
