Stamford, CT – Finn Dixon & Herling LLP, a law firm based in Fairfield County, Connecticut, recently co-hosted a roundtable of hedge fund professionals with the Managed Funds Association (“MFA”). The meeting, which was held in Stamford, Connecticut, was attended by a number of prominent hedge fund managers, as well as other industry participants. Harold B. Finn, a partner in Finn Dixon’s Hedge Fund/Alternative Investment Fund practice group, served as a panelist along with John Gain, MFA President, Lisa McGreevy, MFA Executive Vice President and CFO, and others. The Roundtable was organized for the purpose of informing the hedge fund community about recent initiatives in Congress to change the federal tax laws in ways that could have a significant impact on the industry.
