

Finn Dixon & Herling Elects Jason R. Boyea as Partner

Related Attorney

Jason R. Boyea

STAMFORD, CT – Finn Dixon & Herling LLP is pleased to announce that associate Jason R. Boyea has been elected partner, effective January 1, 2009.

Boyea's practice involves representation of clients in a wide range of corporate transactions, including domestic and international private equity and venture capital transactions, mergers and acquisitions, recapitalizations, going private transactions and public offerings. Boyea also advises clients on general corporate and securities laws matters. In 2007, Boyea was ranked as an "up-and-coming" attorney in the Chambers USA rankings for Connecticut lawyers.

"Jason has devoted himself to our clients, especially distinguishing himself on international transactions," said Brett Dixon, administrative partner of the firm. "We are confident that he will be a core member of our corporate practice for years to come."

"I am thrilled to join the firm's partnership," said Boyea. "I will continue to strive to fully appreciate and understand our clients' concerns, interests and needs and collaborate with our clients on practical solutions and advice on transactions."

Boyea is a 2002 graduate of New York University School of Law and a 1998 summa cum laude graduate of Fairfield University.

Jason resides in Fairfield, Connecticut with his wife, Karen and their daughter.