

ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Maria A. Brusco

ASSOCIATE

MBrusco@fdh.com

T: (203) 325-5026 - F: (203) 325-5001

Overview

Maria Angela Brusco is an associate in the Litigation Department. She received her J.D. magna cum laude from Fordham University School of Law, where she was an associate editor on the Fordham Law Review. She was also a competitor on the Brendan Moore Trial Advocacy Team and a member of the Moot Court Board.

Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Brusco clerked for Judge Paul J. Kelly, Jr. on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit and was an associate at White & Case LLP in New York. Ms. Brusco earned her B.A. from Wellesley College.

Honors and Awards

Order of the Coif

Thomas F. Reddy, Jr. Prize

Award for Excellence in the Study of Constitutional Law, Fordham Law Alumni Association

Cornelius W. Wickersham, Jr. Award, Federal Bar Council

Publications

Read This Note or Else!: Conviction Under 18 U.S.C. § 875(C) for Recklessly Making a Threat, 84 Fordham Law Review 2845 (2016)

Practices

Commercial Litigation

Government & Internal Investigations

Education

Fordham University School of Law, J.D., 2017

Wellesley College, B.A., 2014

Bar Admissions

New York, 2018

Connecticut, 2020

Court Admission

U.S. Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit