Date: 08/06/09

STAMFORD, CT – Finn Dixon & Herling LLP is pleased to announce that Tanyee Cheung has joined the firm as counsel. Ms. Cheung's practice focuses on commercial finance, including asset based and cash flow lending, secured and unsecured loans, distressed and workout transactions (including DIP and POR financings), second lien and mezzanine financings and structured financing products. Ms. Cheung has represented borrowers, agents, senior lenders and junior lenders in commercial financings. “We are thrilled to have Tanyee join our debt financing team.” said Mike Herling, administrative partner of the firm. “She brings tremendous experience and depth to our already strong lending practice.” “I am delighted to be joining Finn Dixon & Herling” said Ms. Cheung. “I worked with the firm while in-house at General Electric and was impressed by the great talent at the firm. I am excited to be part of this strong team” Prior to joining Finn Dixon, Ms. Cheung was in-house senior counsel at General Electric Capital Corporation, allowing Ms. Cheung to gain insight to the needs of institutional debt financing clients from an internal perspective. Ms. Cheung also previously worked for Paul, Hastings, Janofsky & Walker (New York City and Stamford) and Cahill Gordon & Reindel (New York City) and was a law clerk in the Southern District of New York for Judge Mary Johnson Lowe. Ms. Cheung is a graduate of New York University School of Law (J.D. 1993) and Baruch College (B.B.A. 1990 Magna Cum Laude). Ms. Cheung is admitted to practice law in New York and Connecticut.
